We look forward to this time of year. When the days get shorter and darkness encroaches on our outside lives, our homes seem to get brighter—with lights, food, friends, and, of course, music!

One of our winter delights is to share the music of the season with you. This year's WinterSong has music from many lands and from many traditions. Our music travels will take you to Spain, Germany, England, South Africa, the former Yugoslavia, and back again to North America. Along the way, you'll hear traditional and non-traditional Christmas music in German and Spanish; you'll lift a cup to celebrate Kwanzaa, celebrate a child's Chanukah in Ladino (complete with slightly tipsy adult counting!), experience an Iroquois Calling Song, and glory in the splendor of a majestic English Magnificat.

When we were growing up, it wasn't a holiday in our homes unless we gathered around the piano to sing holiday songs. Now our "piano" is the magnificent 120-voice Portland Symphonic Choir and brass ensemble. So sing along with us as we sing familiar carols and holiday songs. You are welcome in our house!

Happy Holidays,

Steven Zopfi and Kathryn Lehmann
